MEDIA STATEMENT

This festival is celebrating the placing of the town of Catherine Hill Bay onto the State Heritage Register, only the second of two towns to be awarded this honour.

The festival will feature Heritage walks where heritage specialist and Catherine Hill Bay historian Jennifer Hill, President of the Art Deco Society NSW, will talk about the town during the Art Deco Period.

This period between the two World Wars included the Great Depression. The housing, food, clothes of the time will be spoken about as will the strength that a tight knit community can offer to help ease the harsh economic problems.

2 Walks: Saturday 3pm, Sunday 3pm, meeting at the old Bay School gate.

There will also be a Heritage Exhibition at the Bowling Club presented by the Eastlakes Historical Society.
